Neil Jussila

Neil Jussila “Free Form Sketching at Riverfront Park”

Enjoy a relaxed picnic-like atmosphere at Riverfront Park as you learn to freehand sketch the landscape with basic pencil. Neil Jussila is an accomplished artist and wonderful teacher with years of experience at the university level. Colored pencils will also be used as you learn step-by-step the basics of color mixing (the Impressionists Palette). You will also receive instruction on how to save your sketches in an inexpensive portfolio. Take in the beauty of our surroundings while transferring your vision to paper!

June 7, 2008 10 - 3:30 Cost: $40

Location: Shelter 2 the south side of the duck pond at Riverfront Park.

Bring your lunch or eat nearby.

If inclement weather, meet at the YAM Education Room

Register early! Workshops are filled on a first-come basis with a minimum and maximum enrollment. Students are registered upon receipt of payment. A material list will be provided upon enrollment or by request. Cancellation Policy: If minimum number of students is not met or the instructor cancels, a full refund will be given. No refund will be given if student fails to attend. If student cancels two weeks prior to class, the fee minus a $25 handling charge will be refunded.

Monthly classes coming We are pleased to introduce a variety of adult education classes held on the 3rd Saturday of the month beginning in September. Please share your ideas! If you'd like to see a certain class offered or know of a good teacher, or have a question about the May or June classes, please contact us at linda5252@yahoo.com or 406 259-9160.
