- Only service animals will be allowed on the Summerfair site.
- Exhibitors will receive an ample amount of booth space. Exhibitors may not use any additional space without consulting show coordinator. All work, display, and storage must stay within the assigned exhibitor space. Booths should not interfere with neighboring booths. Show coordinator shall make the final determination.
- Exhibitions not conforming to artistic guidelines during event, will be asked to remove non-conforming items or entire exhibit booth if necessary.

JURYING INFORMATION

• Jurying is done by a committee of art community members. Jurors look for saleable, fine quality, creative, original work by the artist. The committee strives to balance media representation. Only work hand-crafted by the selling artist is acceptable. No commercial or mass-produced products will be permitted, except offset reproductions of paintings or drawings, as long as the original art is also for sale in the artist's booth. Since images of work are the determining factor in acceptance, take pictures with care. Jury decisions are final.

• Send four images (slides or digital, with the name of artist at top front of each slide) that clearly represent artist work to be sold at Summerfair. The committee recommends that three of these show a small grouping (2-4 items), in order to give the jurors a clear understanding of the variety and range of your work. One image should show your complete booth display. Send all slides in a protective sleeve with a self-addressed, stamped envelope. All slides belonging to artists will be returned after jurying. The committee reserves the right to refuse any artist the privilege of exhibiting work not previously approved by the jury.

• Two checks, one for the $30 application fee and one for the appropriate booth fee, must accompany slides and be mailed with this application. Images will not be juried without required fees. If not accepted by the jury, your booth fee will be refunded at the completion of the jury process with your slides.

• All artists will receive notification of the jurying results by mail. Jury result inquires via phone will be accepted after jury notification dates have passed.

• Cancellation by artist for any reason after May 1st will result in forfeiture of booth fee.
