Support

Your membership gift gives back to the community! The YAM spends its operating dollars locally. Membership supports low-cost services to schools, brings excellent art into our galleries, hosts artist demonstrators, and cares for the artistic legacy of our region. Contact our membership manager at 406-256-6804, x222.

Access for All

Do you have friends or neighbors who would like to visit the YAM but think they can't afford it? Think again! It's Dollar Day on the first Saturday of every month. All non-members can visit for just a buck each. The YAM is also open for free admission during the five annual Artwalk events. Check our website for announcements of additional free days throughout the year.

The Yellowstone Art Museum is a member of Billings Cultural Partners. All YAM programs and major events are listed on the web at www.artmuseum.org or www.billingsevents.com.

The Yellowstone Art Museum gratefully acknowledges ongoing and periodic support from the following:
